RELEVANT JOB EXPERIENCE

Managing Director

May 2023 — Sep 2023

I managed charity events through an independent production company to raise money for LGBTQ youth and individuals. Responsibilities include planning financials, collaborating with staff and volunteers for technical aspects, creating safe online spaces, writing business emails, and managing creative elements/social media. I managed ~50 people (staff, participants, volunteers) during the event ensuring smooth operation, while getting some behind the scenes for future promotional content. The outcome was over $700USD raised in 2-3 hours.

Videographer/Filmmaker

Dec 2023 - Current

Self employed as a videographer managing video production for clients; from concepts/pre-production, to shooting, to post production. Experience in film and television, events, music, and online content (including social media and live streaming). Responsibilities include creating and maintaining schedules, manage and structure finances, self-direct, effectively work in a collaborative environment, and keep a creative eye. Also, a filmmaker taking on industry roles as a director, producer, cinematographer, editor, script supervisor, and production designing (art director, painter, props, etc) in film and television.
